Summer is the perfect time to earn online CME credit at your leisure with an array of topics and dynamic thought leaders in pain management.

MedCom Worldwide, Inc. is pleased to announce the launch of a new and timely webinar series entitled, Advances in Pain and Addiction. This series describes the recent evidence and advances impacting clinical practice in chronic pain and addiction, as well as the issues faced by clinicians prescribing chronic opioid therapy. All three are moderated by Scott M. Fishman, MD.

Clinical Aspects of Risk Management in Opioid Prescribing
Steven D. Passik, PhD

Dr. Passik provides a comprehensive approach to an effective assessment and risk monitoring strategy which can be incorporated into your everyday clinical routine.

Chronic Pain and Opioid Addiction: Emerging Disease States Driven By Advances in Neurobiology, Genetics, and Neuroimaging
Edward Hisky, PhD

Dr. Hisky reviews the supporting research to mitigate the impact of a number of significant clinical issues contributing to the effective use of opioid analgesics as well as a review of neurological and genetic evidence associated with chronic pain.

Ten Commandments of Opioid Prescribing
David Sitberman, MD

Dr. Sitberman provides a global and informative overview of the “Ten Commandments” of opioid prescribing providing a systematic approach to safe, effective, and responsible pain management.

Provided by MedCom Worldwide, Inc.
These activities are supported by an educational grant from Purdue Pharma, L.P.

American Pain Society

Dr. Jeffrey Qualls moderates key sessions from the recent 2011 APS conference to discuss the implications of findings to clinical practice.

- Pain Education with Paul Arntzius, RN, PhD, FAAN
- Latest Research in Pain and Addiction with Declan T. Barry, PhD
- Legal Opportunities and Challenges in Pain with Jennifer Balles, JD
- Opioid REMS with Perry G. Fine, MD

Provided by MedCom Worldwide, Inc.
This activity is supported by independent educational grants from Endo Pharmaceuticals and Cephalon, Inc.

Highlights from the 2011 American Academy of Pain Medicine Annual Meeting include:

- Washington State Guidelines with Alex Callana, MD, FRFP
- Pain Care in the State of Florida with Lora L. Brown, MD
- Ethical Considerations in Opioid Prescribing with Ben A. Rich, JD, PhD
- Preventing Acute Pain From Becoming Chronic with Sean Mackey, MD, PhD
- New Opioid Formulations and Delivery Systems with Lydon R. Webster, MD
- REMS Update with Scott M. Fishman, MD

Provided by MedCom Worldwide, Inc.
This activity is supported by an educational grant from Purdue Pharma, L.P.

Follow ESP on:

Facebook
Twitter
Linkedin
Google+